MINUTE ENTRY

The Court has before it the Respondent's Motion for Change of Judge. Respondent and her counsel have affirmed that this Court has not ruled on any contested issues or held a scheduled conference or contested hearing.

Docketing indicates that this case was assigned to this division on June 23, 2003, as the result of the normal rotation of calendars, almost 2 years ago. During the time that this case has been assigned to this division, the Court has:

- Ordered random drug testing, appointed a GAL, and ordered Respondent's parenting time to be supervised at her expense over Respondent's objection. (Review Hearing, November 4, 2003)
- Presided over an evidentiary hearing on June 8, 2004, regarding custody and parenting time. Custody and parenting time issues were addressed and orders entered. Respondent failed to appear after notice of the hearing.
- Ruled on Respondent's "Motion for Reconsideration Re: Custody and Parenting Time and Emergency Petition Re: Parenting Time With Notice". Minute Entry Order of September 15, 2004.
- Ruled on Respondent's Motion for Reconsideration of Motion to Enforce Parenting Time Schedule. Minute Entry Order of December 16, 2004.
